MINISTER OF STATE FOR LAW AND JUSTICE AND ELECTRONICS AND INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY
(SHRI P.P. CHAUDHARY)

(a) to (d): The creation of special courts, their functioning and any research on disposal rate of cases by Special Courts fall under domain of the State Governments which in consultation with the High Courts set up such Courts as per their requirement from their own resources. The number of special courts created by various States during the last three years including the current year and the number of cases pending in these courts are not maintained centrally.
